BY ALISTAIR BEGG
CGF WORKBOOK

CHAPTER 01

Know Your Lines

1. Do you ever ask the same questions about our society that the people of Judah did (after being captured)? What do you see around you that makes you have these same questions? pp. 17-19

2. What is the main temptation you have to compromise your faith? Has this changed since moving from high school to college? pp. 20-25

3. What lines should I have as a Christian in my environment? How is it that I can stand firm in my faith when up against these lines? How did Jesus stand firm in the midst of His temptation? pp. 25-29

NOTES

Prayerfully go to God and ask what lines you need to draw, then ask Him for strength everyday knowing He is bigger and stronger.

CHAPTER 02

Keep Your Confidence

“We do not need to panic, AND WE DO NOT NEED TO VENT, and we enjoy a deep confidence even as the tides seem to run against our faith for God is God, He is in control, and His kingdom - His church - ultimately knows no rival” pg. 44

1. What fuels Nebuchadnezzar’s anger? Why does his situation relate to us way more than we first realize? pp. 31-34

2. Why is the message of the dream ultimately Good News for Daniel and us? pp. 34-38

3. How was Daniel’s reaction to the death sentence much different than the Babylonian enchanters? How is our culture very similar to Babylon? pp. 38-39

4. How is our culture very similar to Babylon? In what ways do you need to change your response to the “post-christian” society we live in? pp. 39-44

NOTES

Whenever you get overwhelmed by the opposition to Christ in the world around you, pause and remember that God is Sovereign and that we have Hope!

CHAPTER 03

Obey God - Despite the Consequences

1. What idols do you have in your life that seem to be socially acceptable? How does this lead to immorality or sin? pp. 45-51

2. What is Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego's response to the fiery furnace? What is something God might be calling you to obey in faith despite the outcome or consequences? How do we do this? pp. 51-55

3. Looking back, what life circumstances have shaped and grown you most in your relationship with Christ? Why can we have hope in the midst of those circumstances? pp. 55-59

 Action

Pray this week that the Lord will help you remember the furnace of the cross that Christ died on, so you can say no to idols and have hope in the midst of trials you go through.

CHAPTER 04

Speak Out - Because God is Big

1. In what way did God mercifully humble Nebuchadnezzar? Has there been a time where God has done this in your life? If so, how did that change you? pp. 61-66

2. Why is Daniel's compassion towards Nebuchadnezzar somewhat surprising? How was he able to have compassion towards him? pp. 66-67

3. Why must we have a proper view of God in order for us to understand our role in evangelism? Does this change your perspective at all about sharing your faith? pp. 68-73

NOTES

Ask the Lord to give you eyes to see and a heart to feel what He does in order to humbly share the Good News with someone around you this week.

CHAPTER 05

See Through The Glitter

1. How did Belshazzar suppress the truth about God? How do we suppress the truth about God today? pp. 75-79

2. Pride was the big issue with Belshazzar. In what ways do you notice pride in your own life? pp. 80-84

3. How did Daniel respond after being sidelined by the new king? Have you ever felt like you were sidelined for your faith in Jesus? What is our hope even when we are ignored or rejected? pp. 84-87

 Action

Ask God to help us believe that there is nothing the world can offer us that we may keep. What we need most is the gospel of Jesus, not other people's approval.

CHAPTER 06

Serve Well, Stand Firm

1. How can trusting and understanding The God of Daniel help you serve the people around you? Does your work ethic, attitude and kindness prove to others that you are a follower of Christ? pp. 89-93

2. How did Daniel's colleagues know this law they created would catch him? If prayer was banned for the next 30 days would you be caught and convicted like Daniel? pp.94-97

3. What are some similarities between Daniel's tomb and Jesus' Tomb? What are some things we can do today to help us stand firm in the trials and temptations that are to come? Pp. 99-102

 Action

Pray this week that the Lord would help you serve others and seek to understand him more, so that you may stand firm in the temptations that are to come and be a light to those around you.

CHAPTER 07

Take Heart

“What do you expect life is going to be like for you and for the church of Christ? How well are things going right now, and how well are they going to go in the future? Daniel 7 says it’s going to work out even better than we could’ve thought” pg. 103

1. Is there such thing as “the devil”? If so, where do you notice his work?
Pp. 110

2. Are we mean or disrespectful to share our faith with others and invite them to believe what we believe? Why? Pp. 114

3. Where does it look like christian culture and ideals are headed today?
More or less popular/accepted? What will happen in the ultimate end of all things? Pp. 115

Action

We are in an era of “now not yet”. The final GLORIOUS VICTORY of CHRIST isn’t currently occurring. However, with everyday passing it comes closer and closer. Jesus is on the throne and all who oppose him will come to nothing at his very breath and sight. Worship Jesus, walk in obedience, and give Him to a hurting world!
